Notification for the Removal of Incentive Marks from Academic Regulations*Version 2.0

Reference: Recommendations from the Academic Council Meeting held on 25/11/2024 at 11:30 am

Purpose: Removal of incentive marks awarded for participation or achievements in Co-curricular Learning & Research, Extracurricular activities, Sports, Cultural events, and NSS as per the suggestion of the Academic Council meeting held on 25/11/2024.

The current Academic Regulations Version 2.0 include a provision for awarding maximum 10 Incentive marks to students for participation or achievements in Co-curricular Learning & Research, Extracurricular activities, Sports, Cultural events, and NSS. Where as during the recent Academic Council meeting held on 25/11/2024, the members thoroughly discussed this policy's relevance and appropriateness.

After careful deliberation, the council recommended that this provision to be removed from the Academic Regulations Version 2.0.

Based on the Council's decision, the following resolution is hereby implemented:

- 1. Policy Removal: The provision for awarding Incentive marks for Co-curricular Learning & Research, Extracurricular activities, Sports, Cultural events, and NSS activities is officially removed from the Academic Regulations Version 2.0.
- 2. Applicability: This decision applies to all Undergraduate, Postgraduate students across all programs.
