

Real-Time Assessment

Department provides Real-time Assessment, it is essential for improving learning, performance and decision-making. Immediate insights and real-time assessment helps individuals and teams to identify strengths and areas for improvement, leading to continuous growth, enhances engagement, boosts motivation, and enables quick adjustments. Emerging technology and data-driven tools can make feedback more precise and actionable ensuring progress toward goals.

Here are some details that shows that Real-Time Feedback and Assessment done at the end of the unit as the regular practice of department. The quiz/exam is arranged for all the students on online platform and evaluation is done by collecting the responses online. The process leads to the benefits like

- Students can quickly understand what went wrong and make corrections before the mistake becomes a habit.
- Continuous, on-time feedback helps learners to stay on track and improve steadily, rather than waiting until it's too late to adjust
- When feedback is prompt, learners feel seen and supported, which increases engagement and motivation
- Helps student to immediately reflect on their performance and better understand their strengths and weaknesses.
- Catching issues early means fewer revisions and less rework later
